Southern Lithoplate the Only Printing Plate Manufacturer to Earn PAGE Co-op Platinum Supplier Designation

WAKE FOREST, N.C. — Southern Lithoplate, Inc. has the distinction of being the only manufacturer of lithoplates to be recognized by the PAGE Cooperative's new Platinum Supplier Program. The Platinum Supplier award acknowledges outstanding achievement of Preferred Suppliers that have performed at a superior level throughout the past year.

Southern Lithoplate, a leading manufacturer of digital and analog lithoplates, received the Platinum Supplier designation during PAGE's annual member and supplier appreciation reception held at NEXPO 2008 in Washington, D.C.

The PAGE organization singled out 14 Preferred Suppliers for Platinum Supplier status. There currently are 124 members of the Preferred Supplier program. Recipients included workflow software developers, ink companies and manufacturers of printing-related equipment. Candidates were judged on various performance criteria.

Steve Mattingly (left), vice president of sales and marketing for Southern Lithoplate, accepts the General Manager's award along with the new Platinum Supplier designation from Wally Lage, PAGE board president.
